Spelling practice space if needed

English: This week, we have continued our new book, 'Boy in a Tower' by Polly Ho - Yen. We have read the first few chapters and have been focussing on description using the five senses and varying sentence types.

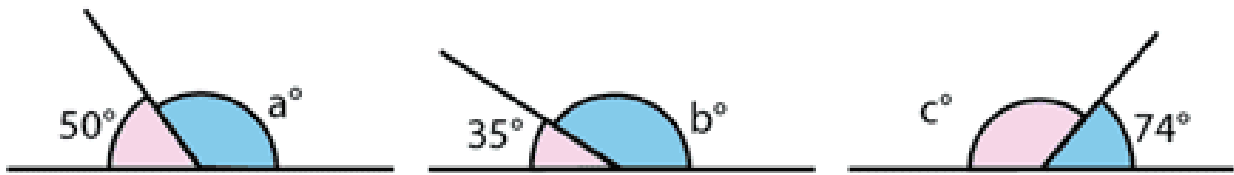

Challenge: Write a description using the five senses and a variety of sentence types about what you can see from your window.

Maths: This week in Maths, we have continued looking at angles.

Challenge: Work out the missing angles.

Foundation Subject

Geography: This week, we have been looking at volcanoes and earthquakes. We even created our own volcanoes!

Challenge: Write a short summary of how earthquakes happen. Try and stick to writing just 70 words in total!

Half Term Project

Create a piece of art (art, painting, drawing, sketching, poetry, photography, sculpture) that shows off your chosen theme. There are 6 themes to choose from. Winning entries will provide a good response to one of the 6 themes, and judges will be asking 'Is it original?' 'Is it well crafted?'

Entries in by Friday 3rd July complete with child's name, class and chosen theme. Each entry needs to have a few sentences/ a short paragraph (no more than 400 words) explaining what inspired the spirited art entry. Parents can help write this.

See separate sheet for more details.

Have a lovely weekend!
