This Week's Learning

English

In English this week, we continued reading Arthur and the golden rope. We have sequenced the story, using adverbials to join our sentences.

Weekly Challenge: Write a diary of one day over the weekend, using adverbials in your sentences. They tell us where, when or how. Remember, if the adverbial goes at the start of the sentence (fronted adverbial), it needs a comma after it. EG: On Saturday, I went to the park with my sisters.

How?	Where?	When?
Quietly,	In the train station,	Yesterday,
Carefully,	Under the bed,	In the morning,
Gently,	In the garden,	After lunch,
Quickly,	Next to the road,	Before sunrise,
Slowly,	On the table,	During the match,
Nervously,	In the forest,	In the evening,
Anxiously,	On the opposite side of the road,	When I have finished my homework,
Courageously,	On the bus,	After Charlie had brushed his teeth,
Helpfully,	In front of the museum,	At midnight,
Happily,	In New York City,	At breaktime,
As quick as a flash,	On the beach,	All of a sudden,
As quiet as a mouse,	Below the surface,	On Tuesday,
As fast as she could,	Above the clouds,	Just then,
Without a sound,	In the fire,	Meanwhile,
